

A diversified and philosophically competitive media has always been fundamental to a democratic republic. We have already strayed too far from that necessity. It is time to stop! I want rules in place that serve the public, rather than private, interests. I oppose voting for even more media consolidation.

With the archaic understanding that your [FCC] primary function is to protect the public's interests, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.